Residential schools venue information

Holiday Inn, Brussels Airport, Belgium

B690, B777, B716, B820, B830

The main entrance to the hotel is on the level and has automatic doors. The main leisure facilities are on the ground floor. The dining area is on the third floor, but has lift access.

Teaching accommodation

Teaching rooms are mainly on the ground floor, but we occasionally use rooms on the seventh floor (lift access).

Residential accommodation

All rooms are en-suite. There are two adapted bedrooms, with wide doors and bath seats, but no rooms with wheelchair accessible showers. A few ground-floor rooms are available, but there is easy lift access to all other residential floors.

Catering

All meals are served buffet-style, and there is always a vegetarian choice. Please contact the Disability Resources Team to discuss any special dietary requirements at least six weeks before the start of your stay.
