Residential schools venue information

Milton Hill House, Milton Hill, Abingdon

B822, B777, B820

Milton Hill is a small site and is mostly on one level with wheelchair access. There is no campus transport. However, if you need to, it is possible to drive between the reception area and the main residential block. Open University students may use the on-site spa facilities and swimming pool which are easy to get into and are on the ground floor. Smoking is not allowed within any of the buildings, including the bedroom accommodation. There are two parking spaces for disabled people which are near the front entrance. You can reserve a car-parking space by contacting the Disability Resources Team. The venue will provide first aid and information on local NHS medical facilities. If you need medical treatment, the venue will contact a local NHS GP to treat you as a temporary resident.

Teaching accommodation

Most teaching rooms are on the ground floor. If you are not able to use stairs, you can be taught in a ground-floor room. Teaching rooms have natural light and natural ventilation.

Residential accommodation

Accommodation is in a three-floor block. Bedrooms are en-suite. Limited number of ground-floor bedrooms available. Two specially adapted bedrooms on the ground floor. All floors are reached by either stairs or a lift. The lift is about a two-minute walk (undercover) from the teaching rooms, dining area and bar.

Catering

Dining area and bar on the ground floor. There’s always a vegetarian choice. Please contact the Disability Resources Team to discuss any special dietary requirements at least six weeks before the start of your stay.
